

Jan Bradley - Percussion

Jan Bradley is a freelance percussionist based in Manchester UK. He plays for various orchestras including the Halle, Royal Northern Sinfonia, Opera North BBB Philharmonic, CBSO and Manchester Camerata.

As well as performing regularly as an orchestral percussionist, he is also known for his work with 4-MALITY Percussion Quartet. Jan was a founding member of the quartet formed in 1999. The quartet have performed extensively around the UK and have also given concerts in Ireland, Finland, Germany, Belgium, France, Turkey, Spain, Australia and Taiwan.

He is also a composer and arranger, primarily for percussion. although he has in addition written for Trumpet, Voice and a percussion concerto with full orchestra.

His works have been performed worldwide, including at the BBC Proms. He has been commissioned to write pieces for a variety of artists including Alison Balsom, CBSO Percussion Concerts and BBC Young Musician of the Year.